is more than just a light source: it is an elegant and contemporary piece of furniture, perfect for enhancing any room. Thanks to the touch system, a simple touch is all it takes to choose between warm, cold or natural light, and adjust the light intensity by holding down the touch button. Designed to offer versatility and freedom, it is equipped with a long-life battery that provides up to 48 hours of autonomy at minimum intensity. The included USB cable allows for quick and easy charging. Ideal for bedside tables, desks, living rooms or as an atmosphere lamp in every corner of the house.
